

WORK HAS BEEN STARTED ON NEW STREET RAILWAYS

C. A. Smith and the Newell Bridge Company
Each Grading On a Line to Congo.

NECESSARY TO HOLD THEIR FRANCHISES

C. A. Smith and the Newell Bridge company, acting in accordance with the provisions of their contracts agreed to when the county court at New Cumberland granted them each a franchise to build, operate and maintain an electric road from Chester to Congo and from Newell to Congo, respectively, have started the work. The first ramed commenced on Thursday and the second on Friday.

It will be remembered that the franchises stipulated that each should begin the work of construction on or before November 8. This point has been complied with and as a result both will be able to retain their franchises until the time limit expires, which is something like 18 months. The C. A. Smith line is under construction just on the west of the corporation limit of Chester and is under the supervision of James Flood, one of the best railway builders in this vicinity. Mr. Flood has a force of men hard at work grading and excavating and at this particular point will have the roadbed ready for the rails in a few days.

The work for the Newell interests is in charge of James A. Newell, who is pushing the construction as fast as possible. He has commenced at a point near Newell, working towards Congo. Though both concerns have inaugurated the work it is not thought that they will continue it very long, for the present at least. It is thought that they have simply started so as to hold their franchises.

There are several good reasons why the companies will do nothing more than they are compelled to do at the present time. Bad weather is near, railway material is exceedingly scarce and the money market is very close.

Neither Mr. Smith nor any of the Newell interests would say today when they will commence in earnest on the roads, but both gave the assurance that the roads are certain.

$517.78 were approved, nearly all of the items having been contracted in connection with the recent smallpox cases with which the board has had to contend.

A letter was received from the local board by Dr. Probst, in which he expressed regret over the fact that the expenses in connection with the illness of Mrs. Preston could not be collected from the state of Pennsylvania. The case was brought into this state and was so violent that the patient could not be moved. She has been a charge upon the local authorities ever since. To satisfy themselves, the members of the East Liverpool board will consult with Solicitor Davidson, and if possible devise some way to collect the expense money from the Keystone state.

AN ITALIAN QUARREL AIRED IN THE COURT

The Defendant Acquitted of a Charge of Threatening to Wring Another's Neck.

Bursts of oratory filled the court room of Squire Daniel McLane this morning during the trial of Louie Acheson, charged by Marjio Lacasse with threatening the latter's life. Attorney Erastus Marshall, representing the plaintiff, kept the crowded room spell bound with admiration during his argument. His stunt was, however, ineffective, Attorney George E. Davis, representing the defendant, impressing the justice of his client's innocence, and having him dismissed.

Lacasse charged that Acheson threatened to wring his neck just like he would a chicken and that he would kill him before he ever had a chance to return to Italy. This was not proven to the court. The plaintiff further alleged that the defendant is an Italian and the latter will not agree to that, stating that he is a Frenchman and would hate to acknowledge belonging to the tribe of Sicilian birth.

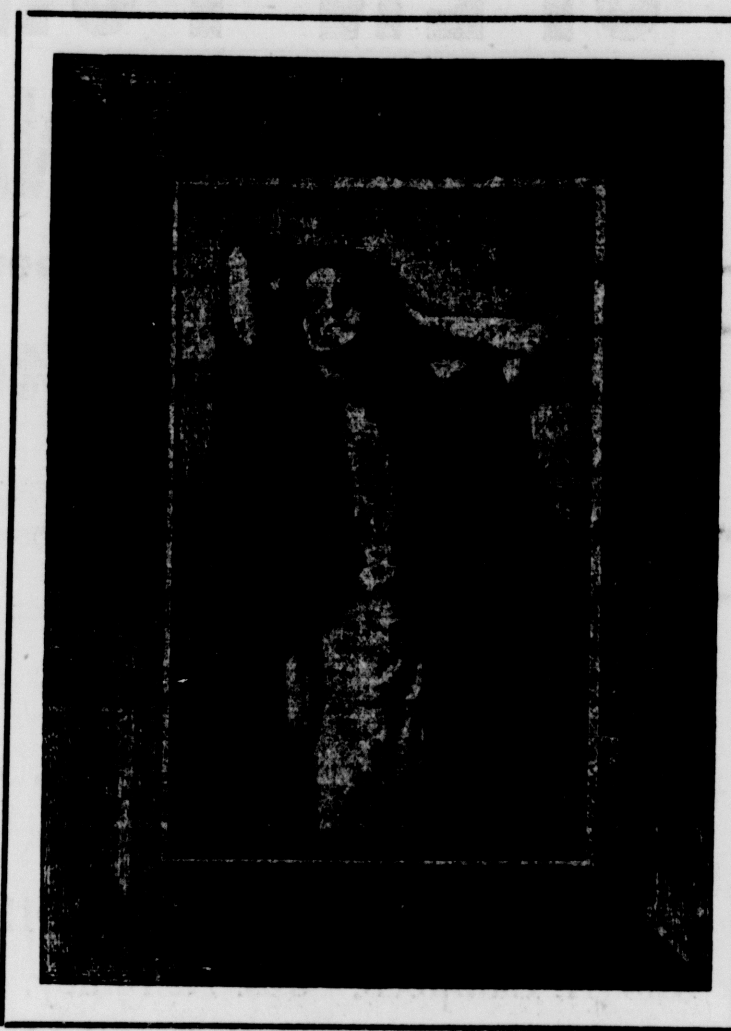

PAINFULLY BURNED

A Two Year Old Child at Lisbon Upset a Skillet of Hot Lard.

Lisbon, November 7.—(Special).—Edwin, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Helman, was painfully burned with hot lard yesterday afternoon. The little fellow was playing about the kitchen where his mother and sister were working, and while their attention was diverted, overturned upon himself a cup of lard which Mrs. Helman had just poured from a skillet. His right arm was badly blistered from the elbow down.

White Woman Weds Negro.

Lisbon, November 7.—(Special).—Leroy Wilt, colored, from Columbiana, and Anna Florence Teegarden, white, of Salem, were married by Mayor George T. Farrell in the probate court room this morning.

The News Review offers to old and new subscribers a copy of the above famous painting by Max Monnebruch, renowned painter of Virese, Germany. New subscribers can get the pictures through the regular force of canvassers or from the office direct. Old subscribers must secure theirs from the office, as in no case will pictures be given through canvassers' orders on old subscriptions.

The subject of the painting is one that appeals to all. The tall, graceful figure of a beautiful young girl, standing with her hands clasped back of her head in an attitude of "contentment," her long, silky hair falling over the dark olive kimono, with its bright scarlet folds, combine to make a color study that is both attractive and pleasing.

POTTER ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY

BUT SAYS HE WAS IGNORANT THAT HE SOLD BAD CREAM.

Another Wellsville Dealer Is Fined.
Local Cases Come Up on the 18th.

George Potter, who was arrested on a charge of selling adulterated cream, appeared before Squire Rose yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty. He was fined $10 and costs. Mr. Rudibaugh, of Clarkson, who was also arrested on a charge of adding formaline to his dairy milk, appeared before the justice last evening and entered a plea of not guilty. He was released under bond of $200 to appear for trial on the 18th. Other defendants are to appear on the same date.

Mr. Potter states that the cream to which objection was raised was obtained from the Rochester Creamery company. He made this statement today: "I have been in the milk business many years, and I never knowingly sold adulterated milk or cream. The creamery people from whom I buy my milk and cream told me they knew nothing about the presence of the stuff in the milk and believe it was put there by some farmer from whom they bought the milk. The creamery company paid my fine and I feel I ought to explain the matter."

Deputy Food Inspector William Martin says that formaline was found in the milk of three of the Wellsville dealers, who have recently had a hearing before Mayor Fogo. In Groner's case, he says the milk was not up to the standard. He says he thinks the department has successfully put a quietus on the further adulteration of milk in this section. C. S. Anderson, another dealer, got $50 and costs yesterday afternoon. He will appeal the case to common pleas court. W. D. Bar also got the same fine and costs, making $54, and he is arranging to settle.

Quaker College Location.

Columbus, November 7.—(Special).—The little village of Damascus, Columbiana county, is competing with Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson county, Hudson, Summit county, and Columbus for a college of the Friends church which that body proposes to establish in Ohio as early as possible. The purpose of the institution is to educate and prepare ministers for work in the Friends church. Columbus is a very formidable applicant for the college.

STORY OF SHOOTING OF JOSEPH MOORE

A Brother Officer Relates the Tale of the Encounter at Beaver.

THE NEGRO FIRED THE SHOT

Railroad Detective Moore continues to improve at the Beaver Valley hospital in New Brighton and the prospects are very encouraging for his ultimate recovery. He is being attended by the best physicians in the employ of the C. & P. railroad and will be carefully cared for so long as he desires to remain at the hospital. The bullet which struck Mr. Moore took a downward course immediately upon entering the body and it went so far that the physicians have given up all hope of locating it. Belug of 48 calibre, it is hard to determine why it did not go clear through the body, it having also struck a fleshy part.

Detective Jewell, of Wellsville, a brother officer of Moore, was in the city this morning and he gave the only clear report of the shooting affray that has been made public. Mr. Jewell said that Moore went up to Beaver on business and while walking through the freight yard espied a man entering a car. Moore followed and locked the car. He then turned and went to the depot and called on the station agent, Grant Grimm, and a new detective, to go with him. Grimm carried a lantern and upon the arrival of the trio at the car Moore opened the door and told Grimm to flash the light. He did so and Moore easily determined that the man on the inside was a negro. Moore said, "Come out of there, I want you." The negro replied, while rushing toward the door, "You go on away, you 'spose I see gwine to let you 'rest me?'" When he reached the car door he pulled a gun and fired directly at Moore. Moore returned the shot immediately, the first fire being effective. After the negro jumped from the car he shot twice more at the detective and the detective fired twice in return.

Mr. Moore was not recovered sufficiently to see the dead body that was found near the place of the shooting yesterday shortly before noon, the exclusive report of which was made in the News Review, but Station Agent Grimm and the new detective readily identified the body. The negro was minus his left hand. The bullet which struck him entered his right side just below the nipple and stopped in his neck. He is a total stranger to the negroes of Beaver and vicinity and is thought to have been a professional hobo. Besides the articles enumerated in last evening's News Review, there was found on his clothing a large quantity of potatoes, a razor and other things generally found on a hobo.

The many friends of Detective Moore in this city were highly pleased last evening when they read in the News Review of the officer's narrow escape and decidedly painful wound being avenged. They all had a great laugh over the story in another afternoon paper stating that the suspected negro was in the Wellsville jail.

W. R. Moore, of Canton, son of Detective Joe Moore, was in Wellsville yesterday on his way to see his father at the New Brighton hospital. He says he was informed his father is improving right along and will soon be able to leave the hospital.

DEVELOPING INTO A FINE INDUSTRY

Card & Prosser's Coal and Clay Mines at Lisbon Well Fixed for Business.

Lisbon, November 7.—(Special).—Work is being resumed with a gradually increasing force of men at the Klondike coal mines, near the city, operated by Card & Prosser. They have just enlarged their fire clay plant, run in connection with the mine, making an important new industry. New machinery has been installed, including an outfit for mining coal by electricity. The power plant is located about half a mile from the mine.

A new 165-horse power engine, propelled by a dynamo, and a new 240-horse power engine supply power for the clay plant. There is an automatic arrangement for loading ground clay on cars. The fire clay deposit lies next to the coal and the products are taken out advantageously together. In full operation the works will employ 100 to 150 men.

GOVERNOR NASH DOES NOT FAVOR THE HANNA BOOM

Believes the Senator Was Sincere When He Said He Did Not Want the Presidency.

THE REPUBLICANS WILL STAND BY TEDDY

Columbus, November 7.—(Special).

The propriety of running Senator Hanna for the presidency is a proposition transcending all others at this time at the state capital. While a large number of prominent Republicans believe it would be an inexcusable offense on the part of the party to repudiate the pledge of support it gave the president at the state convention some months back, there are those who do not regard this action as binding, believing it was not within the power of that body to prescribe what the course of the party should be next year and in the face of the results of the election last Tuesday are asserting that Senator Hanna is the logical candidate for the presidency.

Governor Nash does not coincide in this view. He consented to be interviewed on the subject and talked as follows:

"I am not for Hanna for the presidency, for I believe he does not want it. I believe he was sincere when he stated he knew what the job was and would not have it. Again, his health is not the best, and I believe no man knows that better than Senator Hanna himself, and this, too, is a reason he has given for not being a candidate for that honor. I believe the Ohio Republicans will stand by the Roosevelt resolution adopted by the last state convention.

"No, I am not for Hanna." Attorney General Sheets and Roscoe Mauck, chief attorney in the office of the dairy and food commissioner, are quoted as being for Hanna for president.

SUCCESSFUL WORK AS AN EVANGELIST

Rev. C. G. Jordan Winning Golden
Opinions at Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Speaking of the work of Rev. C. G. Jordan as an evangelist, the Ft. Wayne (Ind.) Sentinel says:

"Rev. Mr. Jordan has proved to be one of the most useful of evangelists. His earlier training happily fitted him for the work, and his great success is due to the fact that he uses no objectionable methods, but preaches the Word in a gentlemanly, scholarly fashion, with undoubted sincerity and with profound earnestness that impresses deeply and brings about excellent results. His is a type of evangelistic work much needed in this day. Prof. Butts gave great assistance as a leader and soloist, as well as by his rare fitness for personal work."

CHILD WAS BURNED NEAR ITS MOTHER

Infant of Mrs. Uhlwurm, the Suicide,
Consigned to the Grave Yesterday.

The infant child of Max Uhlwurm, near Ralston's crossing, died Thursday at the home of a sister of the late Mrs. Uhlwurm in Wheeling, after an illness of a few days. The mother was the unfortunate woman who drowned herself a few weeks ago in the Ohio river in a temporary fit of insanity. Mrs. Uhlwurm became deranged shortly after the birth of the child and it was sent to the home of the sister to be taken care of.

The body was brought to this city yesterday afternoon and taken to the undertaking establishment of J. C. McQuilkin, where Rev. J. G. Reinartz, in the presence of the father and a few near relatives, conducted brief funeral services. The interment was made in Spring Grove cemetery, close to the grave of the mother.

Mr. King will go to Washington in two or three weeks.

NEW SECRETARY HAS ARRIVED

H. H. Pollard Will Take Up His Duties With the Y. M. C. A. at Once.

AIMS AT HIGH STANDARD

H. H. Pollard, recently elected by the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. to succeed M. C. Wright as secretary of the association, arrived in the city on the early train this morning from Chicago. He was accompanied by his wife and both went immediately to the Thompson house, where they will remain until arrangements can be made for private quarters.

Mr. Pollard was interviewed this afternoon by a reporter of the News Review. Polished and gentlemanly in manner, possessing a decidedly pleasing personality and a conversationalist of rare charms, the new secretary bids fair to make a grand success in his new field of labor. He comes from one of the largest associations in the country and though a comparatively young man, has had an abundance of experience, having been the secretary of a department of the Chicago Central Y. M. C. A. department for eight years. The Chicago association has a membership of more than 5,000 and is a very successful one.

Having attended conventions by the score in all parts of the country and having taken up the work in all its phases, Mr. Pollard will be entirely able to fulfill the requirements incident to his position in this city and will take hold of the work with the determination of giving the association the benefit of his experience. He will not assume his duties until Monday, being ignorant of the plans formulated by the board of directors.

The wife of Mr. Pollard is a lovely woman. She possesses a true Christian spirit and takes great interest in Y. M. C. A. work. It will be her desire to assist her husband in every way possible in carrying on the work in this city and having taken an active part in the work at Chicago will no doubt be of much value to the association. She will take particular pains in assisting the ladies' auxiliary of the association.

Mr. Pollard was unable to state today the course he will pursue in making his work a success here. He said, however, that it would be his aim to elevate the work and carry it on a basis of the highest standard and that he will do so to the best of his ability.

Mother Seriously Ill.

Lisbon, November 7.—(Special).—Mrs. Calvin Ewing, of Lisbon, received word yesterday of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. C. G. Abel, at Syracuse, O. Mrs. Abel is said to be in a dying condition. The daughter left for Syracuse yesterday afternoon.

THE AMENDMENTS NOW IN EFFECT

The Governor and State Secretary
Decide An Interesting
Law Point.

DOUBLE LIABILITY CLAUSE

Columbus, November 7.—(Special).—Ohio corporations are sending inquiries to Secretary of State Laylin, asking for information as to the time the constitutional amendments become effective and whether or not it will be necessary for them to dissolve and re-incorporate in order to be relieved of the double liability on stock. It is the opinion of Governor Nash and Secretary of State Laylin that the amendments become part of the constitution on election night. A law passed in 1902 provides for a canvassing board, consisting of the governor, secretary of state and attorney general, to go over the returns. The certificate of votes on the constitutional amendments must be filed with the secretary of state within 10 days and the board has 20 days in which to complete its work. It is the opinion of Governor Nash that the report of the board is retrospective, which makes the successful amendments a part of the constitution immediately after the election.

Attorneys are divided as to just when stockholders are relieved of double liability, but both the governor and the secretary of state positively state that all stock, save that only as to obligations or debts contracted before the amendment was adopted, which will be subject to the double liability feature permanently, ceased to be under this responsibility the moment the amendment became effective. This opinion will be of much interest to concerns which were under the impression it would be necessary to re-incorporate to escape double liability. Under the amendment Ohio corporations will only be responsible for the face value of their stock. Heretofore they could be held for just double their stock. This has worked great injury to the state, having been the means of keeping away much outside capital.

He was accompanied by his wife and both went immediately to the Thompson house, where they will remain until arrangements can be made for private quarters.

Mr. Pollard was interviewed this afternoon by a reporter of the News Review. Polished and gentlemanly in manner, possessing a decidedly pleasing personality and a conversationalist of rare charms, the new secretary bids fair to make a grand success in his new field of labor. He comes from one of the largest associations in the country and though a comparatively young man, has had an abundance of experience, having been the secretary of a department of the Chicago Central Y. M. C. A. department for eight years. The Chicago association has a membership of more than 5,000 and is a very successful one.

Having attended conventions by the score in all parts of the country and having taken up the work in all its phases, Mr. Pollard will be entirely able to fulfill the requirements incident to his position in this city and will take hold of the work with the determination of giving the association the benefits of his experience. He will not assume his duties until Monday, being ignorant of the plans formulated by the board of directors.

The wife of Mr. Pollard is a lovely woman. She possesses a true Christian spirit and takes great interest in Y. M. C. A. work. It will be her desire to assist her husband in every way possible in carrying on the work in this city and having taken an active part in the work at Chicago will no doubt be of much value to the association. She will take particular pains in assisting the ladies' auxiliary of the association.

Mr. Pollard was unable to state today the course he will pursue in making his work a success here. He said, however, that it would be his aim to elevate the work and carry it on a basis of the highest standard and that he will do so to the best of his ability.

THE LATE JOHN LYTH.

The Ohio valley correspondent of "Brick," who was personally acquainted with the late John Lyth, had the following interesting account of his life:

"John Lyth, a member of the firm of John Lyth's Sons, of Buffalo, N. Y., died at his home in Angola, N. Y., at the age of 60 years. Mr. Lyth had been an extreme sufferer for two years prior to his death, and had also been bedfast a good portion of that time. The office of John Lyth's Sons is in West Eagle street, Buffalo, and the factory is located at Angola. The product of the works consists of a very complete line of fireproofing made from shale, and, to my knowledge, it is the only plant of that character located near Buffalo. The factory, kilns and yard cover a considerable area of ground, and operations there have been carried on for many years. Until this summer all the ware was manufactured on vertical pipe presses, of which the company has two, and the drying was all done in a steam-heated building. This year, however, a pug mill and auger machine were installed, and these are employed in making building blocks and the smaller sizes of fireproofing, so that the presses are now used for making the larger sizes of ware. To use in connection with the auger machinery a hot-air furnace drier was installed and equipped with steel cars. This arrangement, as a matter of course, has reduced the cost of manufacture quite materially and has also proven very satisfactory in other respects. All these improvements, notwithstanding the condition of his health, were made under the supervision of John Lyth, who until a short time before his death was in active management of the large plant. Mr. Lyth was a man of large experience in his particular line, and has always been very successful, evidenced by the prosperity of the firm. Alfred Lyth, a brother of the deceased, is in charge of the other end of the business and make his headquarters in the Buffalo office, in which city he also resides. I might also mention in this connection that at one time John Lyth's Sons owned and operated a large sewer pipe factory at Wellsville. This plant was in charge of John Lyth for some years, during which time he made his home in Wellsville. In view of this he was well known by Ohio valley clay manufacturers. At the time of the formation of the American Sewer Pipe company, four years ago, the Wellsville plant was acquired in connection with all others in the neighborhood, and Mr. Lyth then returned to his old home at Angola."

NEW CASTLE NEWS.

New Castle, November 7.—Local No. 54 held its regular meeting with a fair attendance. The trouble at the china works was discussed. The dipper who works day wage refused to give up his lunch time, per agreement with the manufacturers. The firm wanted to live up to the agreement and compel him to work. He refused and quit. The organization ordered him back pending a settlement. Two propositions were received and the transfer card of Joe Bartley from Fallston. The Universal sanitary ware shop is running steadily with good prospects. Two pressers arrived from Trenton and started to work. The china company is not running full. The firm has some bad ware which it will take to Pittsburg for evidence at its trial to show that the

A WAY OPEN

Many an East Liverpool Reader Knows It Well.

There is a way open to convince the greatest skeptic. Scores of East Liverpool people have made it possible. The public statement of their experience is proof the like of which has never been produced before in East Liverpool. Read this case of it by a citizen:

Mr. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Bradshaw avenue, says: "During three years I had attacks of dull steady aching in the back. When stooping or sitting for some time it would change to a quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the mornings great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills sold at the W. & W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I had ever tried."

Sold for 50 cents a box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other. Sold by W. & W. Pharmacy.

workmen here were not competent to do their class of work and it was necessary to send to England for men. The Trades Assembly will have witnesses to prove the workmen in this line of work in East Liverpool and Trenton are as fully competent as the men from abroad.

The Shenango is still running full blast, with lots of orders. There is work for two journeymen pressers here.

Ed O'Neil is working out his notice on the glost, to accept a job as bench boss on the biscuit.

Bart Brown is working on the glost. Charles Conley, kilnman, late from Peoria, is here, but will leave for East Liverpool today.

The wife of George McCarron, bench boss on the glost, who spent a week here, returned to East Liverpool to pack up their furniture and move here, as she seems well pleased with the city.

Walt Smith will be an East Liverpool visitor to-day to spend a day with his brother, Harris.

Will Farish, sticker-up, was called suddenly to East Liverpool on account of the death of his father. He has the sympathy of his associates in his sad loss.

The eagle screamed and friends of Alf Johnson and John McGarry enjoyed the fun.

CARROLLTON NOTES.

A brick floor is being laid in the kiln sheds.

William Cain spent Sunday at his home in Salem.

The decorating kiln sheds are being roofed this week.

Ten new employees have been added to the pay roll this week.

Miss Effie Turner, of Salem, is a new employee in the decorating room.

Messrs. Smeltzenbaugh, Morrison and Bowman spent Sunday in Lisbon.

Miss Lizzie Kelly, of Toronto, is a new employee in the glost ware room.

Misses Nellie Hawk and Ollie Hardisty, of Carrollton, begun work in the decorating room this week.

A carload of boxes and casks arrived this week and the shipping of ware will be begun next week.

Two glost and two biscuit kilns were drawn this week. A biscuit kiln was fired Tuesday and the third glost kiln was drawn yesterday.

President Duffy, of East Liverpool, was here last night to organize a local union.

Several of the men have been idle since yesterday morning owing to a break in the wad pug mill. The cog wheel was taken to Malvern to be repaired.

EARLY POTTERY.

That the manufacture of pottery in England was begun before the Roman period of English history is certain; but the exact date of the earliest manufacture is not known, says Arthur Jenkins, Jr., in an interesting trade article. ever, made of horn. Metal plates were used for food. The Romans introduced tiles and pavements for the adornment of houses. Kent, Wiltshire, and Sussex were the seats of the manufacture of Roman pottery, and in these counties glass and earthenware vessels of great beauty have been found. Their shape, though curious, was symmetrical. In the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries great strides were being made in the manufacture of pottery. In Italy a new ware was being made, delicate and translucent in appearance. The name given to the fabric, as distinguishing it from the older and coarser description of pottery, was porcelain. The exact origin of this word is not known. Some authorities say that it signified a cup, others that the name was given owing to the resemblance which the glazing bore to certain shells called "porcella." Salt glazed stoneware was imported into England at this time from Italy as a novelty. About the year 1727 the mysteries of Chinese pottery became known in England. Ideas on ceramic art, by reason of the knowledge thus gained, were at once influenced, and became enlarged and elevated. Information was obtained as to the necessary substances required for Chinese ware and for the construction of suitable kilns for baking clay, and for the fixing of colors. The above remarks on Chinese ware will at once indicate whence arose the word "china," as applied to the various wares made.

WILL NOT BE REBUILT.

Several plants of the Pennsylvania Clay company, of Rochester, Pa., the concern whose affairs were placed in the hands of a receiver about two months ago, are being continued in operation by the receiver, the Colonial Trust company of Pittsburg. There are four plants running at present, namely, the one at Brady's Bend, two at Crow's Run and the one at Monaca. The large plant at Kenilworth, W. Va., destroyed by fire last winter, has never been rebuilt, and the probabilities are now that it never will be, while in the hands of the present owners. The Pennsylvania company had quite a lot of unfilled contracts on its books at the time the receiver was appointed. It is understood, however, that the works will not be closed when the contracts have been filled, but instead operations will be continued for the benefit of all concerned.

PREPARING TO CLOSE.

The Globe fire brick works of the Mack Manufacturing company at New Cumberland will close down in two weeks to make repairs for about a month. They are now working on a contract of 250,000 soft brick, and will use up all their mined fire clay within the next two weeks.

POTTERY NOTES.

Grover Tasker has started at the Union pottery carrying ware for the dinners.

The Patterson Bros. pottery, Wells-ville, packed a car of 400 dozen of com-modes for shipment this week.

The kilnmen at the Union were compelled to loaf two days this week on account of being short of kilns.

The clay hands at the U. S. pottery, Wells-ville, are loafing Saturday and Monday, on account of the scarcity of boards.

Will Price, mould runner for George Pepin, at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor, has been laid up with a big boil on his neck.

The Stevenson company, of Wells-ville, will supply a nine-foot iron frame dry pan for the new lime-sand process brick works now being installed at Cumberland, Md.

TRACK IMPROVEMENTS
AROUND POWER HOUSE

East Liverpool Railway Being Placed in Good Condition for the Winter Traffic.

The improvements to the tracks of the East Liverpool railway, commenced early in the summer, are being continued by a large force of men under Foreman Hickey, and before winter the line will be in the best condition in its history. At present the men are leveling up and straightening the tracks at the power house. The tracks are being raised above the mud line and the switch points are being raised so that the passengers will not be annoyed by the jolting and bumping.

When the men finish at the power house they will go to work on that part of the track to the east, some of which has already been placed in good condition. The track from the power house west to Broadway has been straightened and raised so that it will be above the mud line. East of the power house several fills are necessary, the result of damage done by the high water last winter.

STANDARD IS AFTER
THE SMALL WELLS

Reported This Morning That the Oil Octopus Wants Holdings of East End People.

It was reported in the East End this morning that a representative of the Standard Oil company had been in the East End negotiating for the purchase of several producing oil wells in which East End parties have an interest. The Standard has been making overtures for the purchase of producing wells in several different fields, owing to the growing scarcity of the supply and is now turning its attention to the smaller wells.

Ernest Smith, an experienced oil man, who conducted some operations for East End parties during the summer, has been in the East End for the past few days, but when approached this morning in regard to the rumor denied that he had any connection with the Standard. He stated that the Standard has been buying wells in other fields.

East End parties are part owners in several producing wells, but those who were seen this morning claimed they had not been approached for their holdings.

PUSHING THE WORK

Island Run Coal Company Has a Large Force of Men at Track Laying.

The Island Run Coal company is pushing the work on the electric line up Little Beaver and on the new coal mines that it proposes to operate. The mines are situated about three miles from the mouth of the stream and a large force of men has been at work laying the track for this distance.

The opening into the hill for the mine is on the opposite side of the creek from the new line of railroad, and in order to save the cost of building a bridge a cable is being stretched across. The coal will be dumped from the mine cars into buckets, suspended from the cable, transported across the creek and dumped into the freight cars.

Would that my pen had been plucked from some beautiful bird of paradise and dipped in the eyes of a rainbow, that I might fittingly describe the beautiful marriage scene enacted at the residence of Mrs. E. V. Braswell, 401 St. Anthony street, Mobile, Ala., on the evening of October 23. Just as the day god, clothed in majesty sublime, had withdrawn his galaxy of quivering, golden beams from all the earth and wafted a gentle good-night kiss to the young evening, who was fast approaching with her cloudless brow, mounted by a crown of jeweled stars—it was then that the cords of confidence, hope, and love, binding the hearts of Hiram J. Bruister and Mary Elizabeth Braswell, were indelibly traced upon the scroll of life, and on the sacred seal of matrimony placed thereon.—West Point (Miss.) Times.

SALEM RAILROAD CASE

from Salem to Washingtonville, a distance of seven miles, raising most of the money by issuing $125,000 of city bonds, secured by mortgage on the road. Then the taxpayers secured an injunction to prevent the collection of taxes to pay the interest on the bonds. Suit was brought to have the bonds made a lien on the property, and while this was pending the appellant conceived the idea of buying the road. They made a contract with the appellants under which the latter were to furnish the money and the former were to have an interest in the road for services rendered. The contract was never carried out.

The appellants asserted that the others had attempted to buy the road at a less price than agreed upon, and notified the Salem authorities to the effect. The appellants brought suit for damages for breach of contract and were non-suited.

Will Be Satisfied, He Says, if He Serves the People Well as Governor of Ohio.

Colonel Herrick was buried under a mass of chrysanthemums and a pile of letters and telegrams. He had just returned from a conference with Senator Hanna and General Dick.

"Any applications for jobs?" the governor was asked.

"Look at that pile," was the significant reply, the colonel pointing to a pack of letters a foot high.

"It is simply an added responsibility and is a wonderful power for conservatism in the legislature. This has been proved by the experience of other states. Before enacting dangerous legislation hereafter the legislature will first ask, 'What will the governor do? What is the right or wrong thing to do?' They will be cautious."

"How about the vice presidential boom that has been started for you?"

"My personal ambition will be entirely satisfied if I serve the people well as governor of Ohio. I seek no other honors."

There will probably be no change in the official head of the Society for Savings. After Mr. Herrick takes his place as governor he will remain the president of the big institution, but much of the work of the president will be performed by other officials.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite house hold remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. MINERS MEET DEATH

HEROIC SUPERINTENDENT DEAD

In Effort to Aid Entombed Workmen He Loses His Life—Four Bodies Recovered—Origin of Fire in Gold Mine Unknown.

Virginia City, Nev., Nov. 7.—Fire in the Kearsarge mine, six miles from here, killed nine men. The damage to surface buildings is slight. Among the dead is Superintendent R. B. Turner, of Butte, one of the best known mining men in the northwest. Four bodies have been recovered.

The Dead.

R. B. Turner, superintendent.
George Allen, stationary engineer.
John Tobin, a miner.
James Powers, a miner.
Lahrye Dye, a miner.
William Fleming, a miner.
Robert Donnelly, a miner.
Two unknown men, miners.

All of the dead miners are from Butte and were single men. The Kearsarge is one of the principal gold mines of the state and is considered very valuable. It is operated by the Alder Mining company.

Fire was discovered issuing from the tunnel house on tunnel No. 1. At the time the flames were discovered the timbers in the tunnel were ablaze. How the fire originated is not known, but at the first alarm all the miners, carpenters and laborers, some 170 in all hastened across the gulch to aid in subduing the flames. Superintendent Turner, whose temporary quarters are high on the hill across the right fork of Alder gulch and a short distance from the burning tunnel house, at once went to the scene and assumed the direction of affairs, entered the tunnel through the fire and smoke to give warning to the entombed miners and to aid in their escape.

Dead Body Discovered.

Near the mouth of the tunnel they stumbled over the dead body of John Tobin, who evidently had made an effort to escape, but was driven back by the flames and smoke. They carried the body to the surface and once more entered the workings to rescue their comrades, if possible.

According to the story of a miner, Hurley by name, he, with Turner and another man, entered the mine behind him, but descended through the air shaft. Hurley was the last of the three to descend. After going down some distance through the air shaft Hurley heard a cry and then thuds, as if of bodies striking the timbers, followed by a smothered splash in the water. Hurley tried to go further down the shaft, but was compelled to retrace his steps.

GETS ALONG WELL
ALTHOUGH ARMLESS

MAIMED VETERAN CAN READ, WRITE AND DRIVE A HORSE.

Remarkable Skill in Many Lines Displayed And Great Disadvantages Overcome.

Although he has no hands and arms, having lost both arms just below the elbows during the civil war, E. P. Latham, of Burton, O., enjoys life as much as any one and is able to accomplish things almost as well as any one who has hands.

Mr. Latham has always been a lover of horses, and has owned from one to five for the last 15 years. After his return from the army he began dealing in cattle, and up to a few years ago was one of this county's well-known butter and cheese manufacturers.

Mr. Latham is skillful in handling a cup of tea or coffee. By sliding a cup to the edge of the table, he is enabled, with the help of his mouth, to place it in the crook of his arm. Then steadying it, he raises the cup so as to drink its contents.

He has a device constructed of leather, somewhat resembling a butcher's sleeve, with a metal end, on which can be placed a fork or spoon. This is made to fit tight, and is pushed on to the stub of his left arm. With this device he can eat such food as can be handled with a fork.

To read a paper or book he generally is seated in a chair with his feet on a rest, with the paper or book on his knees, and turning the leaves with his lips. When he wishes to write, Mr. Latham takes a pen between his teeth. He can write well in that manner.

With a horse, even a high-spirited animal, Mr. Latham is at perfect ease. He drives with the reins buckled short and placed over his shoulders in such a manner that controlling is easy. In driving, should he wish to turn one way or the other, one of his stub arms is placed on the rein, and by twisting his body a trifle the horse is guided. Latham has "broken to drive" some high-spirited colts, and he is considered a good judge of horses.

Around his home is a beautiful and large lawn. By placing the handle of the mower in the crook of his arm and leaning forward somewhat he pushes the grass cut short on his home grounds without any assistance.

During the winter months Mr. Latham tends to the furnace in his residence, using a shovel with his left arm and knee.

Should Be Selected for the Memorial, Suggests An Expert to the Memorial Association.

Canton, November 7.—Thomas J. Moore, of New York, expert and specialist in mausoleum and monument construction, in a letter to the McKinley Memorial association, asks to be appointed chief adviser over the erection of the proposed memorial. In addition the artist gives a number of suggestions regarding the general plan of the memorial which will receive consideration from the board of trustees. His letter in part follows:

"As a suggestion, the most appropriate monument in my opinion would be large light gray Doric Parthenon-like structure, the interior lined with beautiful marbles, selected from every state in the Union, with the central part of the building containing two large marble sarcophagi, one for President McKinley and one for Mrs. McKinley. In panels on the marble walls of the cell of the temple bronze mural tablets, depicting the main incidents in McKinley's life could be placed. My reason for the selection of the Parthenon is that of great simplicity. The Doric order of architecture is in every way symbolical of this attribute. The friezes of the entablature would give excellent excuse for sculpture in relief of the various coats of arms of the states in the Union."

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing, little forethought may save you an end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Belleville, Ill., while packing, on a outing for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often recur. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

TRACK IMPROVEMENTS
AROUND POWER HOUSE

East Liverpool Railway Being Placed in Good Condition for the Winter Traffic.

The improvements to the tracks of the East Liverpool railway, commenced early in the summer, are being continued by a large force of men under Foreman Hickey, and before winter the line will be in the best condition in its history. At present the men are leveling up and straightening the tracks at the power house. The tracks are being raised above the mud line and the switch points are being raised so that the passengers will not be annoyed by the jolting and bumping.

When the men finish at the power house they will go to work on that part of the track to the east, some of which has already been placed in good condition. The track from the power house west to Broadway has been straightened and raised so that it will be above the mud line. East of the power house several fills are necessary, the result of damage done by the high water last winter.

With the improvement completed and the additional rolling stock the company will be in good shape to take care of its patrons during the winter and the service promises to be much more satisfactory than it was last season.

STANDARD IS AFTER
THE SMALL WELLS

Reported This Morning That the Oil Octopus Wants Holdings of East End People.

It was reported in the East End this morning that a representative of the Standard Oil company had been in the East End negotiating for the purchase of several producing oil wells in which East End parties have an interest. The Standard has been making overtures for the purchase of producing wells in several different fields, owing to the growing scarcity of the supply and is now turning its attention to the smaller wells.

Ernest Smith, an experienced oil man, who conducted some operations for East End parties during the summer, has been in the East End for the past few days, but when approached this morning in regard to the rumor denied that he had any connection with the Standard. He stated that the Standard has been buying wells in other fields.

East End parties are part owners in several producing wells, but those who were seen this morning claimed they had not been approached for their holdings.

Oil Well Was Shot.

The well drilled in a few days ago for Dr. R. J. Marshall on the Ben Fisher farm, near Island Run, was not helped by shooting. The well came in apparently a duster, but in a few days a showing of oil developed and Dr. Marshall concluded to have it shot. This was done, but the showing of oil was not increased. The well may eventually make a barrel or two a day.

PUSHING THE WORK

Island Run Coal Company Has a Large Force of Men at Track Laying.

The Island Run Coal company is pushing the work on the electric line up Little Beaver and on the new coal mines that it proposes to operate. The mines are situated about three miles from the mouth of the stream and a large force of men has been at work laying the track for this distance.

The opening into the hill for the mine is on the opposite side of the creek from the new line of railroad, and in order to save the cost of building a bridge a cable is being stretched across. The coal will be dumped from the mine cars into buckets, suspended from the cable, transported across the creek and dumped into the freight cars.

Virginia City, Nev., Nov. 7.—Fire in the Kearsarge mine, six miles from here, killed nine men. The damage to surface buildings is slight. Among the dead is Superintendent R. B. Turner, of Butte, one of the best known mining men in the northwest. Four bodies have been recovered.

The Dead.

R. B. Turner, superintendent.
George Allen, stationary engineer.
John Tobin, a miner.
James Powers, a miner.
Lahrye Dye, a miner.

Robert Donnelly, a miner.

Two unknown men, miners.

All of the dead miners are from Butte and were single men. The Kearsarge is one of the principal gold mines of the state and is considered very valuable. It is operated by the Alder Mining company.

Fire was discovered issuing from the tunnel house on tunnel No. 1. At the time the flames were discovered the timbers in the tunnel were ablaze. How the fire originated is not known, but at the first alarm all the miners, carpenters and laborers, some 170 in all hastened across the gulch to aid in subduing the flames. Superintendent Turner, whose temporary quarters are high on the hill across the right fork of Alder gulch and a short distance from the burning tunnel house, at once went to the scene and assumed the direction of affairs, entered the tunnel through the fire and smoke to give warning to the entombed miners and to aid in their escape.

Dead Body Discovered.

Near the mouth of the tunnel they stumbled over the dead body of John Tobin, who evidently had made an effort to escape, but was driven back by the flames and smoke. They carried the body to the surface and once more entered the workings to rescue their comrades, if possible.

According to the story of a miner, Hurley by name, he, with Turner and another man, entered the mine behind him, but descended through the air shaft. Hurley was the last of the three to descend. After going down some distance through the air shaft Hurley heard a cry and then, as if of bodies striking the timbers, followed by a smothered splash in the water. Hurley tried to go further down the shaft, but was compelled to retrace his steps.

LIFE PLANT

A WARRANTY GOES WITH THIS MEDICINE

It cures to say cured—all diseases of the STOMACH—LIVER—KIDNEYS—BLOOD and SKIN DISEASES. Its rapid cures are marvelous. It is a system restorer and tissue builder of the highest standard. There is no failure or disappointment. It does the work quickly and thoroughly—it brings back the color to the cheeks—the lips grow red—the eyes bright—unightly blotches and pimples disappear—the head is held erect—the step becomes quick and buoyant—sleep is sweet and refreshing. No dreams invade their shadows for the next day—the mind becomes clear and active—appetite and digestion are perfect—the love of life is sweet again and the weak, tired, worn-out, moody and despondent self is buried irrevocably in the past.

Mr. J. C. Lukens, of Tipppecanoe, Ohio, says: I have been greatly relieved of Nervousness, Bloating and K. due. Trouble by the use of Life Plant. As a family medicine to keep the blood in order and tone up the system and prevent sickness, I think it stands at the head of the list. Tipppecanoe, March 1, 1900.

LIFE PLANT is sold at $1.00 per bottle—6 bottles $5.00. Sold by all druggists—sent anywhere on receipt.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1903.

The right and duty of the United States to maintain order along the line of the Panama railroad is perfectly clear. Equally clear is our duty to defend Colombia in its "rights of sovereignty and property" over the isthmus as against the assaults of foreign powers. It by no means follows, however, that in the case of a revolution such as the present it is our duty to interfere for the purpose of restoring Panama by force to the government at Bogota. Certainly we have not intervened in the past in that way on any of the many occasions in the past when Panama has either declared her independence or else participated in a general Colombian revolution.

Three important constitutional amendments received the approval of the voters of Ohio. They give the governor veto power, abolish the double liability of stockholders in corporations and give each county at least one representative in the legislature. All are necessary and proper measures, and their effect will be good.

East Liverpool is soon to entertain a great gathering of Ohio educators. The citizens will show their interest in the cause and doubtless put forth their best efforts to make the meetings successful and the entertainment of the delegates such that the city's reputation for hospitality shall be well sustained.

The Democrats are so hard up for presidential timber that some of them are willing to accept George B. McClellan as a candidate before it is seen whether he is a success or a failure as mayor of New York.

The Cuban congress wants a national lottery. If it succeeds in establishing one, it will furnish the first convincing proof that the island republic is not fit for self-government.

There was one man who was worse licked than Tom Johnson. He was Tom Johnson's candidate for state treasurer.

A Cleveland woman sought to quiet a drunken husband by putting morphine in his whisky. The remedy was effectual, but a murder trial is likely to result.

The European powers are as anxious as anybody to see the isthmian canal built and are not disposed to meddle in South American quarrels over the matter.

It is now asserted that the Panama revolution was engineered and directed by an American. Looks as if it might be true, as it was a complete success.

On the heels of the Ohio election Bryan gets the news that he will not get that $50,000 which a Connecticut stranger willed him. Tough luck.

If the president were to postpone his hunt a while he might have a chance to get a few shots at the tiger in New York.

Tom Johnson says he is ready to begin another campaign. This is encouraging news for the Republicans.

The Panama republic has gained recognition. If it expects to keep it, it will have to behave itself.

There is still hope for Jefferson county. There has been no murder there for two days.

An Iowa college faculty has ordered its students to choose between quitting cigarettes and quitting college.

Chill November's surly blasts will not delay their arrival much longer.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Eugene Bradshaw is here from Chicago.

Frank McKenna, of Pittsburg, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Henry Wallace, of East Palestine, is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry George, of Lisbon, have returned home after visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. B. George.

George Dawson, of Uhrichsville, arrived in the city this morning, and will spend Sunday with relatives.

Ex-Councilman Smith Boswell, of Toronto, was a guest of his daughter, Mrs. George Mayhew, Fifth street.

President Staples, of Beaver college, was in the city yesterday and was the guest of Hon. David Boyce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris, formerly of this city, will be the guests of Mrs. Harris' mother, Mrs. John Baum, of Seventh street.

Mrs. Mary E. Myers left today for Pittsburg. From there she will make the trip into the interior of Pennsylvania for a visit with her son.

Mrs. George Jackson, formerly Miss Hall, of this city, was quite seriously hurt by falling down stairs at her home in the East End, Pittsburg.

Mrs. E. A. Tattersal, of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting her nephew, Thomas Neller, of Fourth street, and her niece, Mrs. John Staley, of Basil avenue.

Mrs. George T. Blake and sons, Norwood and Millen, have arrived home in Columbus, after a visit of three weeks with relatives in East Liverpool.

Word has been received in this city of the serious illness of Mrs. Charles Albright at Sebring. Mrs. Albright was formerly Miss Emma Sebring, and her condition is said to be critical.

Mrs. John Laughlin and children left this morning for Crooksville, where they will make their future home. Mr. Laughlin is employed as a figgerman in the pottery at Crooksville, and with a number of other East Liverpool potters has decided to locate there.

James Stewart, formerly agent for the Panhandle railroad at Chester and cashier for C. A. Smith, has left Columbus for Chicago, where he will manage a roller coaster similar to the one at Rock Springs. He was accompanied by W. T. Snowden, of New Cumberland.

AT THE THEATER

The "Heart of the Ozarks" is described as a historical presentation of the most interesting incidents in the lives of the members of the famous robber band that devastated the middle west following the civil war. The hand-to-hand struggle at the edge of the precipice in the third act is brought to an abrupt termination through a clever ruse at the moment that the villain is hurling the hero to death upon the rocks far below. At the Grand Thursday, November 12.

"A Life's Mistake" is not a melodrama as many might be led to infer from its title, but a charming domestic drama, taken from the most successful book of a very popular and prolific writer, Charles Garvice. The scenes of the book are laid in England, as the many who have read it know; while in the play, America has been made the locality, but this has in no wise detracted from the many beauties of the scene and incidents with which both play and book abound. At the Grand Wednesday night.

The remarkable popularity of "Way Down East" is proved by the fact that the one company playing it rarely leaves New England, and then only for a short run through the southeastern states. Nearly every city and town in New England is acquainted with the show. A peculiar thing about "Way Down East" is the fact that it was considered a "dead one," but that was when it was like the "new butter from its own churn"—it had not been worked over into the colorful, appetizing article it is now. At the Grand Tuesday evening.

In "The King of Detectives" at the Grand last night Irene Myers and her excellent company appeared to great advantage. The company has had a remarkably successful week here, due solely to popular appreciation of its merit.

TEACHERS' MEETING A GREAT EVENT

A Grand Welcome Will Be Extended to Eastern Ohio Educators.

RECEPTION ARRANGED FOR

It Will Be One of the Elaborate Functions of the Year—Interesting Literary Exercises in the High School. Among the Pupils.

Among the educators of the city, the work of special interest at present is the arrangement of the program and entertainment for the Eastern Ohio Teachers' association which will very soon convene in this city. The principals of the various school buildings met on Thursday evening and made further arrangements and announcements in regard to the entertainment of the large number of visiting teachers who will be in the city at that time.

It was favorably and unanimously decided by the local teachers to give a reception to the teachers during the association meeting here. This reception will be in the form of a musicale, when excellent talent will provide the entertainment of the evening. At a meeting of the literary board last evening, Prof. Rayman suggested that the reception be held in Carnegie public library, which idea met with the hearty approval of the library board and corps of local teachers also.

This reception will be one of the auspicious functions of the year, and the superintendent and local teachers are completing the details which will make the educational meeting and the reception a grand success. Another meeting of the teachers will be held on next Tuesday evening.

Owing to the inconvenience which the school children of outlying districts are occasioned when they borrow books from Carnegie library, a system has been planned by Supt. Rayman and the library board of trustees by which the children may have access to the library books without trouble. In the outlying school districts sub-stations will be established, and 10 of the library books will be put in the hands of the teachers of different schools for circulation among the school children of each school for a term of at least two weeks. In this way the children will have excellent literature placed at their command, and their literary interest will become more enthused.

High School Notes.

The special literary exercises of the week were held yesterday morning in the high school by the members of the Senior class. Miss Louise Hill, with the topic, "A Glimpse of Nature," gave a beautiful word picture of the surroundings of nature and the description was fully appreciated by the high school assembly of students. John Evans followed with a scholarly oration on "The Future of Japan," in which he demonstrated the progress and growth of that mighty little nation. "The Future of Russia" was the subject with which Charles Golding convinced his auditors that Russia was doomed to fall unless she obliterated some of her past and present actions, and improved in the future. Miss Belle Hendricks closed the exercises with an able sketch of the literary master, "William Shakespeare."

The Seniors on next Friday morning who will have charge of the literary exercises are: Messrs. Joe Geon and Charles Gaston and Misses Olive Ickert and Laura Moore.

The Junior class, after reorganizing for the year, has decided to have a Junior Debating club. The presiding officers of the class are: president, Fred Mountford, and secretary, Miss Olive Birkett. Many and lively will be the debates which will be contested in the Junior class during the year. The first debate is dated for November 25, when the question, "Is Literature of More Value to the Student than Arithmetic?" will be closely debated. The leaders on the negative side who will open the debate are Lewis Mankey and Miss Marguerite Barnes. The leaders on the affirmative side will be Lewis Steinfeld and Miss Mabel Swan. Every member of the class will take part and debate extemporaneously. A handsome picture entitled "The First Meeting of Scott and Burns" was presented to the board of education by the George H. Owen Insurance company recently. It was the desire of the board that the picture be hung among the literary portraits in the high school rooms, and Supt. R. E. Rayman at the last meeting of the board of education was authorized to present the picture to the high school. The students and faculty value it highly.

FIRE PROTECTION AND GOOD LIGHT

Chester Citizens at Last Have a Prospect of Getting Both.

MATTER BEFORE COUNCIL

Southside Water Company's Proposition Received And Discussed—The Light Committee Has Been Active. More Lights Demanded.

The residents of Chester are now encouraged to believe, from the interest taken by the city council, that the two long-felt wants of the town—better fire protection and a satisfactory lighting system—will soon be supplied. Every member of council was present at the meeting last night, and all seemed alive to the needs of the taxpayers.

Councilman Anderson, who is known to be one of the most progressive citizens of the town, was made chairman of the water committee and reported for the committee. He had received a proposition from the Southside Water company, and lost no time in acquainting the members of council with its provisions. The company proposed to establish a system of fire plugs in the town by the installation of 30 plugs at the time the contract was signed. No more than five hydrants were to be ordered at any one time after the system was inaugurated. For 50 plugs or less the town was to pay at the rate of $45 per plug. When the needs of the town demands a number in excess of 50 the price shall be $40. Ten cents per 1,000 gallons was to be charged for water to flush sewers, etc. No charge is to be made for cleaning and sprinkling the streets. It will be remembered that a proposition was asked for and submitted some time ago, and that the council

CATARRH CURED
WITHOUT DRUGS

Hymel Medicates the Air You Breathe, Kills the Germs and Cures the Disease.

Hymel cures catarrh thoroughly and permanently, because it reaches the smallest air cells in the head, throat and lungs, kills the germs causing the disease and drives it from the system. Hymel goes to the root of the disease, destroys the cause, and makes permanent cures which can be effected in no other way. Breathe it for a few minutes four times a day and benefit will be seen at once. Continue this treatment for a few weeks and Hymel will have cured you.

The Hymel breathed through the neat pocket inhaler furnished with each outfit mingles with the air you breathe. It is a local and direct treatment for eradicating all catarrh germs in the mucous membrane and tissues and in this way cures catarrh in any part of the system. Used in connection with Hymel Balm it has been successful in curing the worst and most deep-seated cases of catarrhal deafness.

The complete Hymel outfit costs $1 and comprises an inhaler, a bottle of Hymel and a dropper. The inhaler will last a lifetime; and additional bottles of Hymel can be obtained for 50c.

Stronger than any claims that can be made in an advertisement, is the fact that Will Reed will give his personal guarantee with every Hymel outfit he sells to refund the money if the purchaser can say that Hymel has not given satisfaction.

rejected it. At that time a protest was made by the citizens of the town against the acceptance of the offer on what they claimed were the best of grounds. The contract formerly submitted contained one clause which was particularly objectionable. It provided that the plugs should be located by and under the direction of the water company, the exact spot at which the plug should be placed to be picked out by the company and not by the city or the property owner. This was thought to be simply one way of getting around a very important point in the contract. In other words, the company proposed to locate plugs at points where it would be most convenient for it to hook onto the mains and without reference to the wishes of the property owners or their protection against fire.

The protest from the citizens on the previous occasion had the desired effect, and the proposition was turned down. With the objectionable clause eliminated in the present instance the councilmen were very ready to take up the matter in a favorable way. A discussion of considerable length was indulged in, and a number of points cited which would benefit the city. Several of the members objected to the 25-year feature, and it was finally decided to make the life of the contract 15 years. With this and a few other minor alterations, the contract was deemed a good one, and the proper officials were ordered to sign up.

When the water system has been properly installed it will be necessary to have some means for handling the supply in case of fire, and some time was devoted to a discussion upon the possibility of Chester being able to organize and maintain a volunteer fire department. It was recalled that a number of public spirited citizens had made a proposal some time ago to form such an association, and it was decided that, with the proper encouragement, the town could have a very satisfactory service.

It developed that the light committee had been active during the interval since the last meeting. The committee had been appointed for the purpose of looking into the service already in use, and to give the council some idea of the cost of what lights the city still requires. Fifteen lights are now in use, and it is estimated that six more would be needed. A contract will be made with Risinger Bros. to supply the six lights at a rate of $17.50 each.

The members of the Chester council are the most patient individuals imaginable, and much as they regret to do so for fear of hurting some one's feelings, it was thought proper to take up the cess pool question once more. The councilmen were very careful that no sign of anger should be manifested, but it was thought proper to again call the attention of those who own property upon which these nuisances are permitted to exist that they ought to be abated. A carefully worded motion was passed notifying the owners of these lots to appear at the city hall within 10 days after receipt of the notice, in order that some arrangements may be made to have the holes filled up. Arrangements may be made to send carriages for the lot owners so that as little inconvenience as possible will result.

When First street was paved during the summer considerable of a cut was made along that thoroughfare in front of the Thompson building. The sidewalk was left several feet higher than the street paving, and the property owner asked that the city do the grading and relay the sidewalk. The Thompson building was erected before a grade was ever established on First street and consequently the owner of the building put down his sidewalk at his own risk. Members of council were opposed to establishing the precedent of bearing the expense of a change of this character, and the matter went over.

C. A. Smith, as trustee of the Rolling Mill Land company, was granted permission to extend a sewer to the property of the company.

Several other minor matters were disposed of and the meeting adjourned.

It is proposed to shoot the well Monday. The drilling apparatus to be used in drilling the John Webster well on the Hadley farm has been placed in position and will be started Monday morning. Harry Glass arrived home from Pittsburgh, bringing with him a new set of drilling tools. They will be transported to his well, four and one-half miles south of town, and made ready for another test.

A BIG GAS WELL

Struck at Sugar Grove Will Be a Boon to Empire Industries.

Quite a surprise was struck in the new Sugar Grove oil district yesterday morning. William Freudenberger, the oil magnate of Steubenville, who was drilling a test well on the Fitzpatrick farm, brought in the well, and it proved to be a big gasser, of unusual strong pressure. The flow of gas soon stopped all further operations, and the drill house and other paraphernalia used in drilling were removed to safe quarters for fear of the gas igniting.

The find is an unusually lucky one, and Empire and vicinity will profit much thereby, as the gas will be piped to that point and much of it consumed by the sewer pipe and brick yards for burning kilns. No estimate can be formed of the pressure. Mr. Freudenberger, who was in Wellsville yesterday afternoon, says it is a good one, and is feeling quite happy over the find, as it will be as good an investment, perhaps better, than if an oil well had been struck.

Mr. Freudenberger has been very lucky in all of his operations in both the Knoxville and Sugar Grove fields. His last well in Sugar Grove done 130 barrels per day at the outset, and is still holding a good record. From a poor man almost a few years ago, he has now become quite wealthy and has the grit to push ahead. To prove his nerve, he served in the Second W. Va. regiment during the Spanish war, and saw service in Cuba.

A REDUCED FORCE

At the Wellsville Shops Expected to Result From Retirement Policy.

The force at the Wellsville shops, it is stated, will be somewhat decreased this month, following the Pennsylvania company's intention of curtailing operating expenses. Two machinists were laid off yesterday. Ralph Hayes, fireman running on the hill run out the main line with Engineer Bucky Moore, was displaced Thursday. Hayes says that he made three trips on the hill route without rest, and asked Foreman Noragon for eight hours rest. The law requires that such a rest be given when requested. Hayes says he was again ordered out to go with Engineer D. J. Miller. He refused, and now is not firing any more, but has taken a position in the shops as a night inspector of engines, a much better berth. Foreman Noragon told him he was sorry to depose him, but orders must be obeyed. Hayes is well liked by all railroad men, and perhaps is greatly bettered by the change. The crust of work on the hill route has compelled officials to require extra work of the men.

The Vulcan Works Busy.

The Vulcan brick works at Wellsville are rushed with orders, and the firm is fixing up for a winter's run, and putting in quite a lot of new machinery for making a high grade of brick. A peculiarity of the steam drying apparatus is that the steam is first used in the boilers at the power house before being conducted into the steam pipes in the dry house. Frank McLivaine is now superintendent of the works.

Delightful Social.

The Y. P. S. C. E. society of the First Presbyterian church gave a delightful social and musicale in the parlors of the church last night, attended by a large and appreciative audience. A splendid musical program was rendered, many local singers taking part, consisting of trios, duets, quartets and solos. A good sum was realized by the society in receipts.

The force at the Wellsville shops, it is stated, will be somewhat decreased this month, following the Pennsylvania company's intention of curtailing operating expenses. Two machinists were laid off yesterday. Ralph Hayes, fireman running on the hill run out the main line with Engineer Bucky Moore, was displaced Thursday. Hayes says that he made three trips on the hill route without rest, and asked Foreman Noragon for eight hours rest. The law requires that such a rest be given when requested. Hayes says he was again ordered out to go with Engineer D. J. Miller. He refused, and now is not firing any more, but

The Vulcan Works Busy.

The Vulcan brick works at Wellsville are rushed with orders, and the firm is fixing up for a winter's run, and putting in quite a lot of new machinery for making a high grade of brick. A peculiarity of the steam drying apparatus is that the steam is first used in the boilers at the power house before being conducted into the steam pipes in the dry house. Frank McLivaine is now superintendent of the works.

Delightful Social.

The Y. P. S. C. E. society of the First Presbyterian church gave a delightful social and musicale in the parlors of the church last night, attended by a large and appreciative audience. A splendid musical program was rendered, many local singers taking part, consisting of trios, duets, quartets and solos. A good sum was realized by the society in receipts.

SOUTH SIDE

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

FIRE PROTECTION AND GOOD LIGHT

Chester Citizens at Last Have a Prospect of Getting Both.

MATTER BEFORE COUNCIL

Southside Water Company's Proposition Received and Discussed—The Light Committee Has Been Active. More Lights Demanded.

The residents of Chester are now encouraged to believe, from the renewed interest taken by the city council, that the two long-felt wants of the town—better fire protection and a satisfactory lighting system—will soon be supplied. Every member of council was present at the meeting last night, and all seemed alive to the needs of the taxpayers.

Councilman Anderson, who is known to be one of the most progressive citizens of the town, was made chairman of the water committee and reported for the committee. He had received a proposition from the Southside Water Company, and lost no time in acquainting the members of council with its provisions. The company proposed to establish a system of fire plugs in the town by the installation of 30 plugs at the time the contract was signed. No more than five hydrants were to be ordered at any one time after the system was inaugurated. For 50 plugs or less the town was to pay at the rate of $45 per plug. When the needs of the town demands a number in excess of 50 the price shall be $40. Ten cents per 1,000 gallons was to be charged for water to flush sewers, etc. No charge is to be made for cleaning and sprinkling the streets. It will be remembered that a proposition was asked for and submitted some time ago, and that the council rejected it. At that time a protest was made by the citizens of the town against the acceptance of the offer on what they claimed were the best of grounds. The contract formerly submitted contained one clause which was particularly objectionable. It provided that the plugs should be located by and under the direction of the water company, the exact spot at which the plug should be placed to be picked out by the company and not by the city or the property owner. This was thought to be simply one way of getting around a very important point in the contract. In other words, the company proposed to locate plugs at points where it would be most convenient for it to hook onto the mains and without reference to the wishes of the property owners or their protection against fire.

The protest from the citizens on the previous occasion had the desired effect, and the proposition was turned down. With the objectionable clause eliminated in the present instance the councilmen were very ready to take up the matter in a favorable way. A discussion of considerable length was indulged in, and a number of points cited which would benefit the city. Several of the members objected to the 25-year feature, and it was finally decided to make the life of the contract 15 years. With this and a few other minor alterations, the contract was deemed a good one, and the proper officials were ordered to sign up.

When the water system has been properly installed it will be necessary to have some means for handling the supply in case of fire, and some time was devoted to a discussion upon the possibility of Chester being able to organize and maintain a volunteer fire department. It was recalled that a number of public spirited citizens had made a proposal some time ago to form such an association, and it was decided that, with the proper encouragement, the town could have a very satisfactory service.

It developed that the light committee had been active during the interval since the last meeting. The committee had been appointed for the purpose of looking into the service already in use, and to give the council some idea of the cost of what lights the city still requires. Fifteen lights are now in use, and it is estimated that six more would be needed. A contract will be made with Risinger Bros. to supply the six lights at a rate of $17.50 each.

The members of the Chester council are the most patient individuals imaginable, and much as they regret to do so for fear of hurting some one's feelings, it was thought proper to take up this cess pool question once more. The councilmen were very careful that no sign of anger should be manifested, but it was thought proper to again call the attention of those who own property upon which these nuisances are permitted to exist that they ought to be abated. A carefully worded motion was passed notifying the owners of these lots to appear at the city hall within 10 days after receipt of the notice, in order that some arrangements may be made to have the holes filled up. Arrangements may be made to send carriages for the lot owners so that as little inconvenience as possible will result.

When First street was paved during the summer considerable of a cut was made along that thoroughfare in front of the Thompson building. The sidewalk was left several feet higher than the street paving, and the property owner asked that the city do the grading and relay the sidewalk. The Thompson building was erected before a grade was ever established on First street and consequently the owner of the building put down his sidewalk at his own risk. Members of council were opposed to establishing the precedent of bearing the expense of a change of this character, and the matter went over.

C. A. Smith, as trustee of the Rolling Mill Land company, was granted permission to extend a sewer to the property of the company.

Several other minor matters were disposed of and the meeting adjourned.

Among the Oil Men.

It was reported in Chester this morning that James Murray had struck the sand on the Samuel Richmond farm, south of town, yesterday. The prospects for a good supply of oil are good. It is proposed to shoot the well Monday. The drilling apparatus to be used in drilling the John Webster well on the Hadley farm has been placed in position and will be started Monday morning. Harry Glass arrived home from Pittsburgh, bringing with him a new set of drilling tools. They will be transported to his well, four and one-half miles south of town, and made ready for another test.

B. L. Chandler Married.

Friends of B. L. Chandler, a popular employee of the Chester plant of the American Tin Plate company, are today extending congratulations, and receiving the cigars. Mr. Chandler was married Wednesday evening to Miss Mary Cleckner, of Wellsville. The bride is an accomplished young lady, prominent in society circles, while the groom, who has been a resident of Chester for some time, hails from Beaver county originally, where he has a host of friends. The happy couple will make their home in Wellsville for the present.

WELLSVILLE

A BIG GAS WELL

Struck at Sugar Grove Will Be a Boon to Empire Industries.

Quite a surprise was struck in the new Sugar Grove oil district yesterday morning. William Freudenberger, the oil magnate of Steubenville, who was drilling a test well on the Fitzpatrick farm, brought in the well, and it proved to be a big gasser, of unusual strong pressure. The flow of gas soon stopped all further operations, and the drill house and other paraphernalia used in drilling were removed to safe quarters for fear of the gas igniting.

The find is an unusually lucky one, and Empire and vicinity will profit much thereby, as the gas will be piped to that point and much of it consumed by the sewer pipe and brick yards for burning kilns. No estimate can be formed of the pressure. Mr. Freudenberger, who was in Wellsville yesterday afternoon, says it is a good one, and is feeling quite happy over the find, as it will be as good an investment, perhaps better, than if an oil well had been struck.

Mr. Freudenberger has been very lucky in all of his operations in both the Knoxville and Sugar Grove fields. His last well in Sugar Grove done 130 barrels per day at the outset, and is still holding a good record. From a poor man almost a few years ago, he has now become quite wealthy and has the grit to push ahead. To prove his nerve, he served in the Second W. Va. regiment during the Spanish war, and saw service in Cuba.

To Will Reed's Pharmacy.
Dear Sirs—As agent for the Fulton Compounds in East Liverpool there are some facts in the Call office in this city that should interest you and the editor of the News Review, as well as newspaper men generally. We copy now from a letter from Clifford House, of the Call:

"However improbable may seem the statement that Bright's disease and Diabetes are now curable in a great majority of all cases, it is well within the province of some of us in the business department of the Call to know that it is true. Mr. Edward Short, of this department, was given up by his physicians as a victim of Diabetes, and is now perfectly well. The mother of one of the editorial staff has also recovered from Diabetes. This was so conclusive that I told a friend, a well-to-do citizen of Duluth, Minn., who had Bright's Disease, and he too recovered."

We will also add that an ex-Supreme Judge, with offices in the Call building, is a late recovery. You are authorized to proclaim to the world that the most deadly diseases known, viz:
Bright's Disease and Diabetes, yield to the new diuretics evolved during experiments made upon himself by John J. Fulton, of this city, in his memorable and successful struggle against the ravages of Bright's Disease.

Yours very truly,
THE JOHN J. FULTON CO.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY "ORRINE,"
A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC.

Physicians pronounced drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the sound lining and stupifies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can beat the inflamed stomach membranes.
"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the nervous system, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary. "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mr. E. T. Sims, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
"I was a name as a twenty-year drunkard recovered to manhood and health by four bottles of ORRINE. It is a wonderful and marvelous cure for the drink habit."
Mrs. F. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood."
Mr. J. E. Hayes, of New York, writes:
"I have used four bottles of ORRINE. I now have a good appetite, my health is restored, and I have no desire for drink."
Mrs. W. L. D. Helena, N. Y., writes: "I waited one year before writing you. I suffered from the effects of my husband's drunkenness, as well as other additional evils, but they all failed until we used ORRINE. He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."
Mr. U. L. R. Kansas City, Mo., writes:
"I am satisfied that ORRINE is a distinctly the best in the world. ORRINE, in my opinion, will cure any case if taken as you direct. I was a common drunkard for twenty years, but to-day I am free of any desire for liquor. You have found the specific. God bless you!"
Mr. A. E. L. Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drink it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four bottles of ORRINE cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."
Price $2 per box, 6 boxes for $5. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company,

NERVAN TABLETS

The great nerve tonic and blood remedy, produce plumpness, rounds out hollow ness, bring the bloom of youth to the cheeks, and all who take them enjoy good health and strength. Nervan Tablets act on the nerves and blood, and contain all the elements of life. Positively

CURES KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES,

Rheumatism, All Diseases of the Blood, Backache, Nervous Dyspepsia, Clear the Complexion and Aid Digestion.

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

ALCOHOL IN ALL LIQUID KIDNEY AND RHEUMATIC REMEDIES CONDEMNS THEM.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol con-gests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the blood. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, headache, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a shallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

READY TO MOVE INTO NEW ROOMS

Township Trustees to Be Domiciled In the Municipal Building.

NEED OF A NEW CITY HALL

One Member of the Public Safety Board Says Money Spent on Repairs Will Be Money Wasted—Favors a Bond Election.

The township trustees are preparing to move their quarters from the Kirk building on Sixth street to the city hall. They were recently notified by the authorities governing them that they will no longer be allowed to pay rent, and it is their intention to be located at the city building within a few days.

It has not been decided by them what portion of the hall they will use. According to the deed accepted by the city, the trustees have complete control over one-half of the building, the portion on the north. On this side the mayor's office and waiting room fill the space of the first floor, and the third floor is used by the band. The trustees first thought of occupying the third floor, but they took into consideration the fact that the majority of people who come to them for aid are infirm or crippled, making it a hardship for them to climb the two flights of stairs. This considered, they will no doubt occupy the first floor, a portion of it at least.

If the trustees do move all their furniture and other paraphernalia to the hall at once, they will not, however, arrange for permanent headquarters immediately. There is a movement afoot to improve the building externally and if the plans that have been suggested are carried out the trustees may seek another portion of the building.

It will be remembered that Mayor Weaver announced a few days ago that he had become tired of waiting for the promised repairs at the city building and that he would have them done at his own personal expense. It was his intention to start the work this week, but several of the councilmen told him to have a little more patience and they would see what could be done towards improving the quarters at the next meeting of council. The councilmen stated that they realize full well how badly the chief executive needs improved quarters, but they were powerless to act owing to the lack of funds. There are now good hopes for having a supply of cash on hands early next week and the councilmen will figure on the work in anticipation of it.

If the matter of improving the building was to be left to one of the executive boards of the city it is not likely that the hall would ever be improved. One member of the safety board states that he thinks if money thrown away to repair the hall. He strongly favors a new city building and would not sanction the spending of a penny on the old one.

Notwithstanding that the taxpayers feel that they are bearing an awful burden owing to the big expense of the city, it is believed by this member of the safety board that they have sufficient pride in the general appearance of the city to favor a bond election to provide the necessary amount.

People will talk about Joseph Bros. for they are selling the same union tailor made suits at $10; others charge $15.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Talked of African Missions.

Mrs. E. D. Moore as hostess was last evening assisted by a large number of the ladies of the First and Second Presbyterian churches in entertaining Mrs. W. C. Gault, of Batauga, Africa. Mrs. Gault has worked in Africa as missionary for some time, and the results of her wonderful experiences were brought to light when she interested the entire company with a talk on the work being accomplished in Africa by the missionaries. The talk was of an informal and interesting nature, and a number of important questions in regard to the missionary work were asked by those present, and answered by Mrs. Gault in the course of her talk. After leaving this city Mrs. Gault will spend some time in Wooster before returning to her work in Africa.

In Honor of Rev. David Pratt.

Hon. David Boyce last evening gave an informal 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Rev. David Pratt, of Portland, Me., who is in this city visiting at the home of his son, Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt. At the dinner were present a few of the relatives and near friends of the host and honorary guests. A pleasing feature of the dinner was the reminiscences of former days as related by the aged gentlemen. The function, though informal, was replete with the bounteous hospitality of Mr. Boyce, whose ability as a host is well known in this city.

Entertained Her Class.

Mrs. G. R. Pattison last evening entertained her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church at her home on Lincoln avenue. The boys were delighted with their entertainment with games and the refreshments, which were served at a late hour. The young ladies showed their great appreciation of the entertainment afforded them by their Sunday school teacher and hostess.

Vernon Jefferies.

A pretty society wedding was solemnized at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Vernon on Lincoln avenue, Salem, Thursday evening, when their daughter, Miss Eleanor May, was wedded to Mr. John McMann Jefferies, of Pittsburg. Over 100 guests, many of them from out of the city, were present to witness the wedding, which was among the foremost in society circles this season.

The Willing Workers.

The Willing Workers of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Koch, Fourth and Monroe streets. From 2 until 5 o'clock the ladies spent an enjoyable time in talking of the affairs of importance to the society and church and also made some plans for work of the winter.

Pleasant Surprise.

Miss Jessie Roberts was last evening given a pleasant surprise at her home on Third street. About 20 of her friends were present for the celebration of the surprise and the evening was spent in various diversions. Miss Roberts received a number of handsome presents from her friends.

Youthful Driver Thrown From a Buggy By a Runaway Colt.

Alonzo Allison, aged 17, son of Robert Allison, southeast of Chester, was at a party last night, given at the home of Mr. Halstead near Ashbury chapel. A pleasant evening was spent, and at a late hour Allison started for his home. The horse was a young one and became frightened at something by the roadside, and started to run. The boy did his best to regain control of the animal, but it was thoroughly frightened and kept up the wild gallop for several miles.

The driver was thrown out and badly bruised, while the buggy came in contact with a stump by the roadside and was completely demolished. The horse ran on to the Allison farm, where it was later captured and put away.

A Thimble Party.

Mrs. J. H. Maxwell, of Phoenix avenue, gave a thimble party at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister and guest, Mrs. T. J. McDonald, of Seattle, Wash. Over a dozen guests were present and the time from 2 to 5 was delightfully spent. A dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. L. A. Smith, of Phoenix avenue, is confined to her home by illness.

An addition of 10 feet will be put to the store room of Greek & Riley on First street. Work will be started Monday.

Madison Evans, who was formerly in the employ of the J. C. Lewis company, was calling on Chester friends yesterday. He will be employed by the Chester Supply company.

A large crowd of foot ball enthusiasts accompanied the Chester team to Empire today, where they will assist the local team in winning the game against the Empire lineup.

John West left for Wellsburg this morning, where he will purchase an outfit for a butcher shop. It is announced that he will open a retail market in the lower part of town within the next two weeks.

If the project receives a sufficient amount of encouragement a gymnasium will be installed for the benefit of the Chester schools. It is the intention to purchase apparatus for both the male and female scholars.

During the shut down at the mill the management has taken advantage of the suspension to have some necessary work performed about the plant. Edward Hadley has been engaged to do the work, and as he is an expert mechanic, the task will be well done.

Rev. Mr. French, a Baptist minister of some note, will conduct services in the United Presbyterian church each evening next week. There are quite a number of Baptists in Chester, and much good will doubtless result from the meetings. Rev. Mr. French is from Midway.

READY TO MOVE INTO NEW ROOMS

Township Trustees to Be Domiciled In the Municipal Building.

NEED OF A NEW CITY HALL

One Member of the Public Safety Board Says Money Spent on Repairs Will Be Money Wasted—Favors a Bond Election.

The township trustees are preparing to move their quarters from the Ikirt building on Sixth street to the city hall. They were recently notified by the authorities governing them that they will no longer be allowed to pay rent, and it is their intention to be located at the city building within a few days.

It has not been decided by them what portion of the hall they will use. According to the deed accepted by the city, the trustees have complete control over one-half of the building, the portion on the north. On this side the mayor's office and waiting room fill the space of the first floor, and the third floor is used by the band. The trustees first thought of occupying the third floor, but they took into consideration the fact that the majority of people who come to them for aid are infirm or crippled, making it a hardship for them to climb the two flights of stairs. This considered, they will no doubt occupy the first floor, a portion of it at least.

If the trustees do move all their furniture and other paraphernalia to the hall at once, they will not, however, arrange for permanent headquarters immediately. There is a movement afoot to improve the building externally and if the plans that have been suggested are carried out the trustees may seek another portion of the building.

It will be remembered that Mayor Weaver announced a few days ago that he had become tired of waiting for the promised repairs at the city building and that he would have them done at his own personal expense. It was his intention to start the work this week, but several of the councilmen told him to have a little more patience and they would see what could be done towards improving the quarters at the next meeting of council. The councilmen stated that they realize full well how badly the chief executive needs improved quarters, but they were powerless to act owing to the lack of funds. There are now good hopes for having a supply of cash on hands early next week and the councilmen will figure on the work in anticipation of it.

If the matter of improving the building was to be left to one of the executive boards of the city it is not likely that the hall would ever be improved. One member of the safety board states that he thinks if money thrown away to repair the hall. He strongly favors a new city building and would not sanction the spending of a penny on the old one.

Notwithstanding that the taxpayers feel that they are bearing an awful burden owing to the big expense of the city, it is believed by this member of the safety board that they have sufficient pride in the general appearance of the city to favor a bond election to provide the necessary amount.

People will talk about Joseph Bros., for they are selling the same union tailor made suits at $10; others charge $15.

MAYOR'S CANDY STOLEN

Some Thief Took a Bucket of It From a Car and Used Part of It.

Detective Jewell, of the C. & P. railroad, was in the city this morning investigating the theft of a bucket of candy from a box car at the depot yesterday. The candy was consigned to Mayor Weaver. The bucket was found last evening near the old glass house. It had been opened and about two pounds of the candy had been taken from it.

Detective Jewell has no clue to the person who stole the candy, but is determined to locate the guilty party.
